

ni bizman
oked for
number
ercedes

ie Mendonca

bai: The regional office (RTO) has businessman from ized his Mercedes
VIP registration H43/A-1) after it
y found that the fake. It had been other vehicle.
er, Khatri, has
produce the reg-
ments of the ve-
been directed to ty of Rs 2,000.
wever, claimed
officials that the
umber was not at the number
ted to a Skoda
e that he owns.

SKODA'S
RATION

Start Sunday with brain teasers and an anti-litter campaign

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

It is a movement which brings together teenage selfie queens, ageing fitness buffs, casual hobby horses and super enthused Mumbaikars who want to try out new things on a Sunday morning. "Cricket, handball, football, badminton, hopscotch, cycling, skating, pramming. Lots happening on #equalstreets," was how @patelameet described his outing to Equal Streets on social media. "Way to go," he added for good measure about the event at the movement, which ensures a traffic-free Sunday morning along a 6.5km stretch in Bandra and Santacruz.

This Sunday, there will be more than 20 free activities. For the first time, experts from Grooming Babies will organise an impromptu call

ROAD RAGE: Equal Streets saw over 50,000 Mumbaikars last week on response game for children and encourage them to use their imagination and art to recreate a green Mumbai. Infid Team will train visitors in making jewellery, cards, artifacts and sculptures. To top it, students from NIFT will turn up to support the Great Indian Litterbug campaign. They will do a chalk walk and a street play on the theme on Linking Road. There will also be skating and Pilates sessions.

As part of the Equal Streets initiative, brought to Mumbai by NGOs, think tanks, citizens' associations and cycling groups, a 6.5km loop is closed to motorized vehicles from 7 to 11am every Sunday. The movement will continue till May 31, 2015, on the stretch that extends from Bandra's HP junction down Linking Road before looping back to the junction via SV Road. Mumbai police, BMC and NGO Embarq are partners and the initiative is supported by The Times of India.

Powered By

SHOPPERS STOP

FAREY

The last rites of army ja Vikhroli on Saturday. D

62%
'disc